Co-ed Bible Study

1 & 2 Thessalonians

Matt Cordella-Bontrager

You are warmly encouraged to join our co-ed Bible study on Paul's First and Second Letters to the Thessalonians. We are eager to see how God will encounter us with this text, and shape us for Christian witness.

"We thank God constantly for this, that when you received the word of God... you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers."

(I Thessalonians 2:13)

Women's Group

She Reads Truth* – Psalm of Prayers

Psalms is one of the most beloved books of the Old Testament. This study explores 15 psalms as prayers with a specific focus for each one, such as praising God's greatness, overcoming worry, seeking guidance, and giving God adoration. Weekly leadership will vary among those who have been a part of this group. Come join us as we dig deeper into God's Word and pray the Psalms!

Is the Bible Reliable? A Careful Examination of the Evidence for Scripture

Kate Reese and Stan Kulp

In today's society, many nonbelievers pose challenges to the scriptures, such as, "How can the Bible be reliable when the New Testament has been copied so many times?" and, "The Bible has human authors and, therefore, is not reliable." Through examination of the historical evidence for scripture, we will address some of the criticisms of the Bible and confirm the reliability of the Bible. During the 10 week class time, we hope to analyze these challenges and additional questions to find truthful, confident answers. For a complete list of the topics we will be studying, please stop by the class signup area in the foyer.
