MEETING JESUS – The “I Am” sayings of Christ by R.C. Sproul Doug Gerber

Who is Jesus? Nearly every adult person has formed some opinion of him. These opinions may be superficial, uninformed, or downright heretical.

But does it really matter what we think about Jesus? After all, he was a man who lived nearly 2,000 years ago, so how relevant can he be to people in the twenty-first century?

The answer to that question ultimately rests upon whether what Jesus said about himself is true.

In this book, R. C. Sproul looks at seven sayings of Jesus recorded in the Gospel of John which reveal his true identity and teach us the truth about him. By considering these “I am” sayings we meet Jesus and learn just how relevant he truly is.

Women's Book Study

Trustworthy: Overcoming Our Greatest Struggles to Trust God

A study of 1 and 2 Kings by Lysa TerKeurst

Dawn Gerber and Katie Dosal

When hard times come and it seems God is deviating from the plan, we assume our lives should follow, we're much more likely to want to tame God, not trust Him. It's then that we begin to press into our own ways and our own timing. No human can carry the weight of being their own god, but so many of us try.

“Trustworthy” will be used for the first 6 weeks of the session. We will continue our study on Trusting in God with sessions from “She Reads Truth” resources.
